I have always wondered how exciting would be to travel somewhere with my friends. What if we could travel to Almaty together? There is a wide range of possibilities and activities to try.

We would stop in a hostel, from which could go to visit some museums, go to a cinema, watch the nature, go to city parks and so on. Huge city such the Almaty is always exciting. There are a lot of interesting places to visit. I do believe that Almaty is cultural capital of our country. Incredible infrastructure with an abundant attractions. Even 2 weeks is not enough to discover cultural richness of this city.

There are some historical and art museums to visit. The history of this place goes back to the ancienty.

That's why I would discover such a city with my friends.

We and my friends are usually spend our time behind the castle of culture, there is a lot of places to visit, including entertainment center, beach and fast food restaurants.

Most of the time we just walk around or sitting on bench and telling stories, or just something in the resting. When we don't have anything to talk about, we are going to the entertainment center, big amount of attractions won't let you get bored, our favourite is car racing, because there is no rules and we can do anything we want. Usually after being so tired, we are going to fast food restaurants, and there is not much to say about it, we are just having the good time.

I really like that place, we all have a lot of memories about it, some may be bad, and some good, but despite any thing, I like it.

Hello, Liza! I'm so sorry, but I really can't go to the park this afternoon. My mom don't want to listen to me. I ~~said~~^{told} her about this meeting yesterday, but she completely forgot about it. She said that I had to meet my little brother from school at 4pm. Also, I will have to prepare the whole house before guests will come. I'm so angry ~~to her~~ because she didn't tell me anything about her plans for today. And now I have only 3 hours to take my brother from school and clean the whole house. You know that our house is not very small, so it will take ~~minimum~~ at least 2 hours to clean it in proper way, because I will do it by myself. My mom will go and buy some groceries. Obviously, she have to cook a very big dinner, so she can't help me right now. It will be the family dinner, but I don't really like my relatives from my dad's side. This evening is going to be really bad. I'm sorry, but can we meet on another day? ~~Will you be~~ Can you go out on next Monday or Tuesday? I will wait for your answer, sorry.

It is evident that most people love to spend time with their friends. That is a very important stage in all the friendships, and for a specific reason, each person appreciates it. I also enjoy hanging out with my friends and had experienced a lot of adventures throughout the time we have been together.

I do not go out much, but if i do, i will try to do my best to make the memories last forever.

Our most loved place to hang out with my friends is the central park. I love that place, significantly for its area and surroundings. Essentially, this place offers us such activities as walking, cycling and even making new friends. Moreover, the park is an excellent place to relax and enjoy the environment. It is not so enormous, but is quite attracting. Unfortunately, it is located far away from my neighborhood, so the arrival usually takes me around 20-35 minutes, depending on my pace. However, since our town does not have much entertaining places i am still grateful for at least that place.

Nevertheless, i love spending time with my friends and am okay with any places to meet. I will always remember that park, notably for the memories i have had there, and it will always hold a special place in my heart.

III. Writing. (variant 4)

Nowadays, burning outs and doing procrastination became a vital problem in our lives. Especially, a lot of teenagers / students are experiencing some kind of strains regarding to losing motivation and focus during the school year, it is much worse if it is a graduating year.

As I am a graduator, I totally understand teenagers' feelings, their worries and fears. But, today I got some really useful tips for you, guys. I would name this article „How to hack a school year?“, so if you are facing similar struggles such as lazy, anxiety, demotivation, stay with me to solve your problems.

First thing first, as I noticed, the most useful thing to fight with your lazy is a Pomodoro app. This app could help you to balance rest and studying and not to lose your focus. You set a time for 25 minutes which you spend for studying - writing an essay, solving a problem - and when time is up, you set a time for 5 minutes to have a rest. From my own experience, I can prove that this app is doing perfect.

Secondly, it could sound general, but, please, remember that your only motivator is you. No one can affect you better than you. Remember for what are you doing it. We have different goals and dreams. The main thing is to start, so you are already doing great.

Thirdly, this period is going crazy for a lot of you and may be it is hard to share with your worries and fears. For that situation, I can hardly recommend you to start writing a diary, where you can write anything you want and free negative feelings. You also can write a list of things that you already did in a day, so at the end of the day you can read it and be proud of yourself.

These tips I use by my own too and I am so happy about how effective they are. Last thing I want to say is a lot of people before you did it and why you can not?

Nowadays, juveniles are having problems with balancing the schoolwork and the free time. There are several tips to solve that ~~problem~~^r problem.

On the one hand, it can be done by planning your day. Teenagers can make a daily schedule that will allow them to do their homework and also have some time to rest. For instance, first part of the day should be spent on completing school tasks and the remaining part of the day on having fun or sleeping. Moreover, creating a daily schedule will help young people to raise up their responsibility level.

On the other hand, some students may have some difficulties in balancing their free time and schoolwork. To expand, ~~some~~ they may have problems in their family, health

To conclude, it's not hard or unreal to make a balance between ~~these~~ ~~the~~ working and having rest. Teenagers just need to organise their days and do everything before deadline.
